

Report for IHA General meeting

Greece

Courses continue and are held in different regions of the country to make Halliwick available to as many people as possible.

We have one qualified lecturer and one will commence training shortly.